

Introducing the world's first and only car key vending machine.

Keys NOW!™

This fully-automated machine makes house keys. But unlike any other key machine, Keys NOW!™ dispenses car keys too. Now your customers can instantly replace car keys themselves, without the time, expense, and hassle of a dealership service appointment.

The next big thing in retail.

Automated residential key machines have become a huge hit with retailers, but you've never seen one make car keys—until now. Sure, some claim to, but their automotive keys must be shipped out later or installed by costly third-party vendors. With Keys NOW!, your customers get keys...NOW!

THE OPPORTUNITY IS NOW!

Until recently, key replacement for homes meant manual key cutting machines. Not anymore, with the explosion of automated residential key machines worldwide.

For decades, key replacement for cars meant a trip to the dealership. Now they'll come to YOUR front door.
